Pakistani Students In Palestine Refuse To Come Back, Say Palestine Still Safer Than Pakistan

The families of hundreds of Pakistani students stuck in Palestine following the Israel retaliation to Hamas attack are urging their government to help bring them home. However, a majority of these students aren't willing to come back.

Speaking to The Fauxy, a Pakistani student stranded in Palestine said "It's all missile dropping and bombing happening here, it feels like home. Despite a full fledged war we feel safer here than in Pakistan".

Media reports say more than 200 students have been stuck in Palestine and Gaza since the Israel retaliation after Hamas attack.

"We thought of evacuation process but when the students didn't show willingness to come back we took another 500 students and dropped them in Palestine." said Pakistan External Affairs Minister Shah Mehmood Qureshi.

"It's okay if these students feel safer in Palestine than in Pakistan, we have 200 less people to feed" said Pakistan PM in a press conference.

Russian Missiles Rain Down On Ukraine As RRR Song 'NATO NATO' wins Oscar

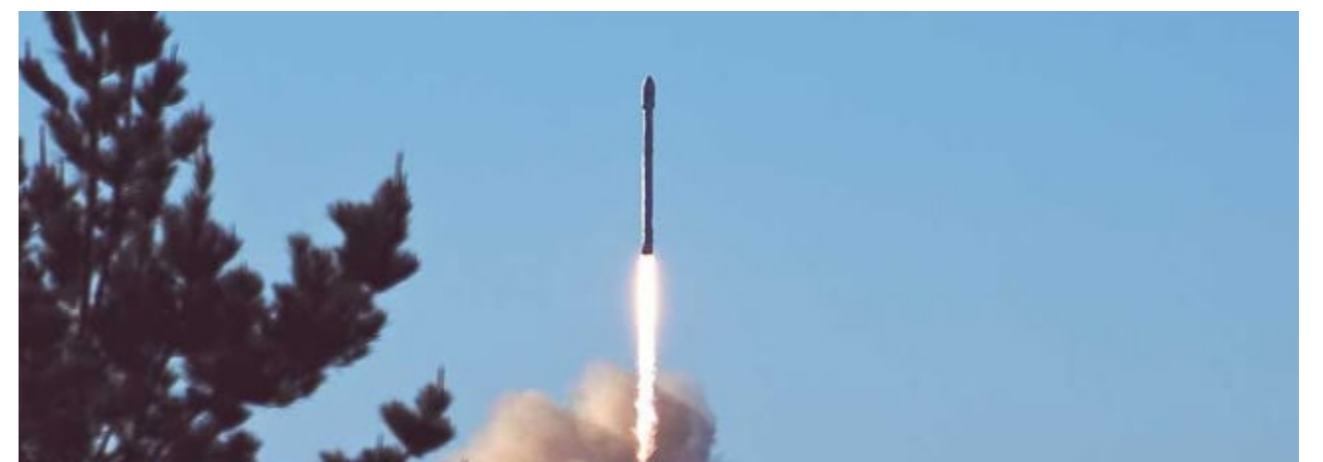

On Wednesday, Russian forces bombarded scores of towns in Ukraine as Russian President Vladimir Putin was reportedly upset with the NATO song of RRR being awarded Oscar. Earlier Putin had said that he is open to negotiations, a stance Washington has dismissed as posturing because of continued Russian attacks.

Russia on Wednesday launched more than 10 rocket attacks on the Kupiansk district in the Kharkiv region, confirmed Ukraine's top military command.

Russia's ambassador in United States has asked to retract its decision of awarding NATO song an Oscar. Speaking to The Fauxy, Russia's ambassador said "We don't have problem with RRR movie winning Oscar but jury could have chosen a different song. Choosing NATO for Oscar is a deliberate attempt to provoke Russia".

United States President, Joe Biden replied to Russia's demand and said "The truth is lies What's clear, and I mean this [from] the bottom of my heart, NATO NATO NATO.."

POLITICS

Wrestling Federation Chief Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh identifies as woman. CJI baffled.

On Friday, Chief Justice of India DY Chandrachud ordered the Delhi Police to file an FIR on the basis of the complaints lodged by the wrestlers protesting at Jantar Mantar. Several prominent wrestlers have been protesting at Delhi's Jantar Mantar seeking action against Wrestling Federation of India

(WFI) president Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh for alleged sexual harassment of players. However, the wrestling protest took an interesting turn when Wrestling Federation Chief Brij Bhushan Singh identified himself as a woman and filed a counter FIR against the wrestlers. Reportedly, Brij Bhushan Singh in his complaint called himself a gender-fluid, who currently identifies himself as woman.

Upon asking how it happened all of a sudden, when there are allegations against you, Brij Bhushan Singh said "the concept of gender is complex and the definition of a biological man and a biological woman is not restricted to a person's genitals."

Brij Bhushan further added "Many women wrestlers look more masculine than men, does it make them men? similarly I may look like a man but I can be a woman, and wrestlers can harass me".

On Monday, the rupee hit a new all-time low on Monday, the rupee hit a new all-time low against the dollar, plunging well past 81.50 per dollar as the dollar rose sharply to multi-year highs against most major currencies on fears of a global recession from the rising borrowing rates worldwide.

Opposition parties accused the government and Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman of mishandling the situation. The Modi-led BJP government assured the people that it is taking several measures to avoid further slip of the Rupee against the dollar. In one such step, the government is bringing an anti-conversion bill in the winter session of the parliament.

Reportedly, the government is in the final stage of drafting the anti-conversion bill, which will be presented in the winter session of the parliament. As per the draft, government will make the Rupee to Dollar conversion void and the value of the rupee will be measured only in the currency which is weaker than Rupee.

Govt to bring Anti-Conversion Law amidst weakening Rupee against Dollar

Bangladesh's Taka, Pakistan's PKR and SriLanka's LKR are the top contenders in the list.

Rumours suggest that government has made provisions for criminalising the Rupee to Dollar conversion and people caught converting Rupee to Dollar will invite UAPA as it will show the country in bad light.

Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman will present the anti-conversion bill in Loksabha in winter session. Top BJP ministers have already started approaching opposition MPs for their support in Rajya Sabha.

Wrestlers' protest row: Phogat sisters to return their olympic medals as soon as they get chief and BJP MP Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh on Thursday announced that they will return their medals.

The Phogat sisters said that if their demands aren't met, they will be left with no option but to return their olympic medal, as soon as they get one. Reportedly, Phogat sisters have earlier demanded that they be allowed directly to Olympic without playing nationals. Upon asking, whether they'll return the job, award money and lands allotted to them along with the medal, the wrestlers ignored the question and started wrestling with the reporter.

Man Runs Out Of Space In His Body For Yet Another Pfizer Dose To Fight New Variants

Big News is coming in from the United States where a man has approached WHO after the Biden administration is encouraging Americans to get an updated dose of Pfizer. Man claims that he has run out of place in his body for an additional dose. The Man has so far taken over 100 doses of vaccine to fight each variant as requested by US Govt.

Last week after he got his 124th jab he got all covered with bandaids when he came out of the vaccine Centre.

The Fauxy sources suggested that ” the man owns Pfizer stocks and was excited to get more and more jabs”.

Currently, the man is undergoing surgery for additional arm to get more Pfizer shots.

BUSINESS

Trying to average out his shares, man ends up buying the company

Big news is coming in from Mumbai where a retail investor, Ramesh Dhawan became the owner of the Adani Power as he kept buying more and more Adani Power shares to average out the shares.

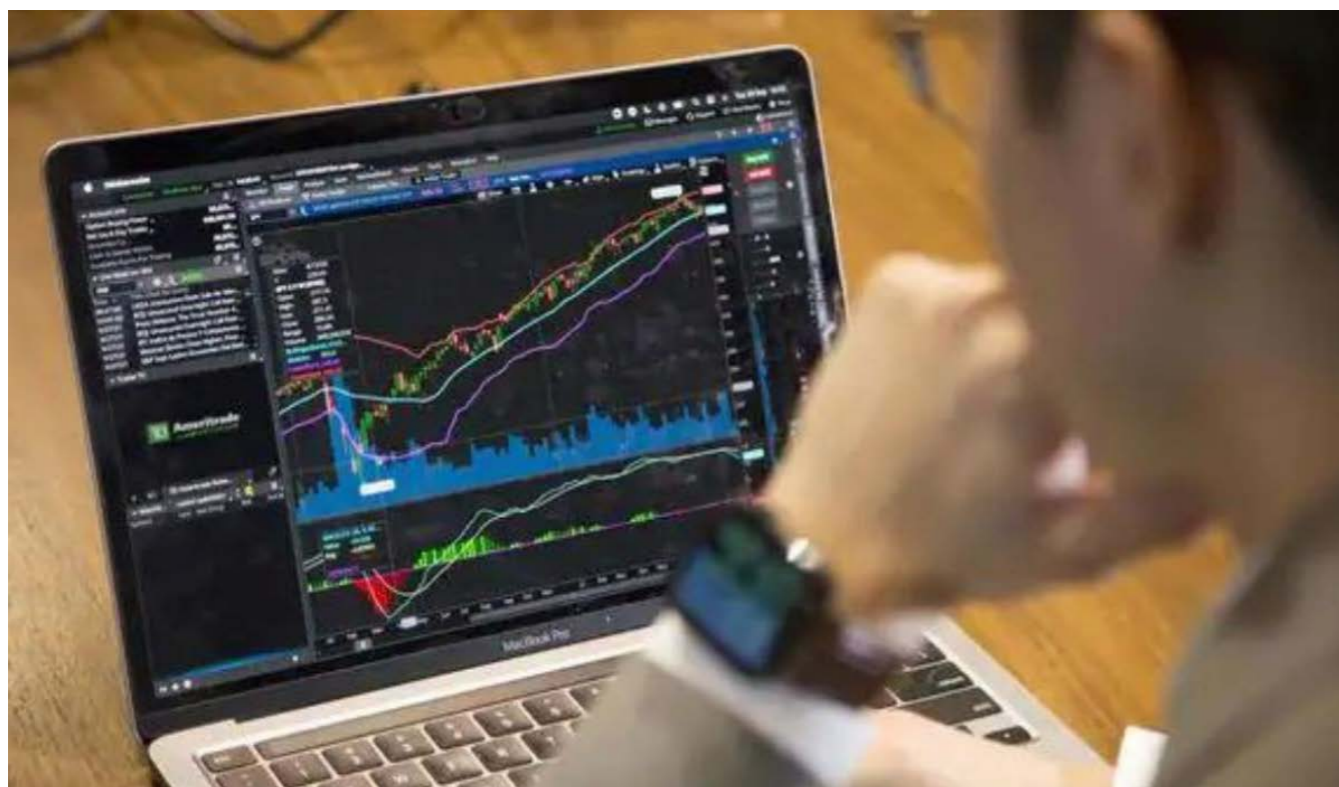

Power as he kept buying more and more Adani Power shares to average out the shares.

Reportedly, Ramesh Dhawan bought 1000 shares every-time Adani Power fell by over 5% and now Ramesh Dhawan has a maximum number of shares, even more than Adani himself.

Ramesh Dhawan has more than 52% company's equity. Speaking to The Fauxy, Ramesh Dhawan said "I don't even know what company does, I just see the charts and trends and buy the shares, but now when I am the owner of the company, I'll decide what kind of power the company will produce. It could be political power too"

This isn't a standalone case of investors going crazy for their favourite company shares, earlier, a man bought the share of the Pharma company instead of buying the medicines and later succumbed to his investments.

India promotes racism by being the bright spot in the global economy: Economic Experts on Saturday called Indian Govt economic policies discriminatory. Raghuram Rajan's statement came after International Monetary Fund (IMF) said that India will be a bright spot in global economy in 2023.

Critic of Govt economic policies, former Reserve Bank of India (RBI) Governor Raghuram Rajan

Lauding India's strong macroeconomic fundamentals, IMF said that India is in a better position to deal with the global headwinds.

However, economists in India called it a bad sign as India is promoting racism by being bright spot and not dark spot. Economists said that India's economic policies are against the Black Lives Matter movement.

Earlier, economic expert had said that India will be cornered if it doesn't get hit by recession like rest of the world.

Reportedly, India is likely to incorporate some points in the upcoming Budget 2023 to avoid being a bright spot. The Fauxy sources suggest that the government is likely to do away with the Performance Linked Incentive (PLI) Scheme and would rather donate Rs 72,000 to every Indian to ensure India is hit by recession.

ENTERTAINMENT

Nadav Lapid, who called The Kashmir Files a vulgar Propaganda, requests Vivek Agnihotri to make The Israel Files

Big News is coming in from Israel where the popular filmmaker,

Nadav Lapid, who once called The Kashmir Files a vulgar propaganda has reached out to The Kashmir Files director Vivek Agnihotri requesting him to make a movie – “The Israel Files” to show how Palestinians and Hamas terrorists brutally killed the innocent civilians and paraded naked body of a German woman.

Nadav Lapid was shocked to see the uncanny similarities between the vulgar propaganda and what Hamas terrorists are doing to the people of Israel.

The Fauxy sources suggest that “Nadav Lapid has asked Israel Govt to make the movie tax free once it’s released”.

ISIS Condemns The Kerala Story, calls it an attempt to undermine ISIS which has employed more women than shown

The makers of the controversial ‘The Kerala Story’ are yet again in controversy after ISIS expressed its disapproval of the data shown in the movie The Kerala Story. In its statement ISIS claimed that the stats shown in the movie are wrong and ISIS follows global bench mark in employing women, infact ISIS has employed more women than many MNCs like Amazon, Google, Apple etc.

ISIS also said that we have more than thousand cases unlike just four or five case that the Kerala Story makers claimed.

The released its statement after the makers of the movie updated the description on YouTube and changed ‘32,000 women’ to ‘3 women’.

ISIS has urged Countries s to make the movie tax free in various countries to promote significant representation of women workforce in global Multi National Companies.

Boasting its work culture, ISIS claimed that despite world hit by recession, ISIS didn’t announce any major cutdown in its headcount.

FASHION

Drug addicts on streets mistaken for Zara models

Big news is coming in from Florida where zombie drug has devastated cities throughout the State. Drugs addicts on streets have created altogether different pictures of the state.

The drug addicts can be seen in bizarre positions very similar to Zara models. Reportedly, a professional photographer mistook these drug addicts for Zara Models. The photographer not only took their pictures but also uploaded them on the internet after which Zara witnessed significant hit on its website. The Fauxy sources suggest that Zara has in fact taken these drug addicts as its models for a new collection. Speaking to The Fauxy, the ZARA CEO said “This is amazing, we used to hire professional models while all one need to do is snort some cocaine or LSD”.

Starbucks asks man to identify as woman after staff misspells his name

Starbucks misspelling a name isn't something new however this time Starbucks went a little too far. Reportedly on Thursday, Starbucks gave a coffee to its customer name Arpit but misspelled his name as Arpita on the coffee cup. When Arpit objected, the Starbucks asked Arpit to identify as woman Arpita.

Starbucks, who has recently launched a new campaign about inclusion, wants people to be gender fluid. When Arpit refused to identify himself as woman, the other customers at Starbucks called him misogynist and anti-LGBTQ+ and demanded him to be banned from Starbucks.

Speaking to The Fauxy, Arpit who is now Arpita said, "Their misspell is costing me dearly, it's 80,000 for gender change surgery but anything for Starbucks".

Starbucks on the other hand called it a welcome change and also announced that Starbucks is soon adding pronouns to the customers' name in their Starbucks coffee.

Boy Accused Of Kicking A Pregnant Woman To Be Arrested As Soon As He Comes Out Of Her : Court

Big news is coming in from the United States, where a shocking incident happened as a fetus has been sentenced to jail for kicking a pregnant woman.

The pregnant person has filed a case against a fetus who allegedly kicked her on her stomach.

The woman told the judge that until the baby doesn't take birth she's not the mother and hence the fetus has no right to hit her. Since the fetus isn't born yet the rights given to every civilian doesn't apply to him and hence, no lawyer can defend the fetus.

Court, considering it a rarest of rare case, gave verdict in favour of the woman, however, the aby once born will be given a chance to defend itself in the court.

SPORTS

RBI says Neeraj Chopra's Gold reserve helped in preventing rupee from falling to record low

Big News is coming in from RBI which has claimed that Neeraj Chopra winning so many Gold medals helped in preventing rupee from falling to record low.

On Wednesday, Neeraj Chopra while defending his Asian Games Gold medal didn't surprise anyone and won yet another Gold Medal. With this medal, Neeraj Chopra has surpassed Tirupati Balaji and RBI in total gold reserves.

Thanking Neeraj Chopra from preventing rupee from falling further, RBI governor said "If Neeraj Chopra keeps winning like this we will be once again Sone Ki Chidiya".

The Fauxy sources suggest that "Neeraj Chopra has made bringing gold through sports look easier than bringing gold from Saudi without getting caught by customs".

Sachin Tendulkar criticises Prithvi Shaw for not holding the bat correctly while beating his fans

An argument over selfies quickly escalated into a fight with a baseball bat and a car chase in Mumbai for cricketer Prithvi Shaw, according to a police complaint.

Eight people have been named in the police case for allegedly charging at Mr Shaw and his friend, breaking the windshield of their car. The controversy turned bigger when cricketing god, Sachin Tendulkar also criticised Prithvi Shaw. However, the criticism wasn't for his behaviour but for the way Prithvi Shaw was holding the bat while breaking the windshield of the car. Speaking to The Fauxy, Sachin Tendulkar said, "A batsman should try to play in the 'V', but Prithvi was playing across the line and there was a problem with his grip also. Prithvi needs more training". Ravi Shashtri once said "When I see Sachin, Sehwag and Lara in Prithvi Shaw". Although Prithvi Shaw hasn't responded to the controversy but Prithvi Shaw's lawyer has requested either bail or bat for Prithvi Shaw.
